

Application for Off-Campus Employment Due to Economic Hardship

Who Is eligible for Economic Hardship?

- F-1/J-1 visa students who have looked for but have not found employment opportunities on-campus and are in severe economic hardship caused by circumstances beyond student's control that arose after obtaining F-1/J-1 status.
- Students have been on F-1/J-1 status for one academic year in good standing.

Conditions/Limitations

- Student cannot begin employment until he/she receives the Employment Authorization Document from U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS).
- Student must continue to engage in a full course of study during academic year.
- Acceptance of employment should not interfere with the full course of study. Employment will be limited to 20 hours per week while school is in session. Full-time employment is allowed during official school breaks.
- Off-campus employment must end if student transfers to another school.
- If the application is denied, USCIS will indicate the reason for the denial in writing. A denial may not be appealed, although, if the circumstances warrant, a motion to reopen or reconsider with a separate form could be filed.
- Processing time for employment authorization document varies, and student must wait a few months. Authorization is granted in one-year intervals, up to the expected date of completion of studies. Student must reapply to from USCIS each year to renew this work authorization.

What to send and where

1. Upon review and verification for this benefit, an UTSA international student advisor will generate a new I-20/DS-2019 with recommendation for employment. Student will receive two copies of this I-20/DS-2019 (one for USCIS and one for personal records). Student should sign I-20/DS-2019 before mailing to USCIS.
2. All above listed documents and signed I-20/DS-2019 must be mailed to the following address:

For US Postal Service deliveries

USCIS Dallas Lockbox
USCIS, P.O. Box 660867
Dallas, TX 75266

For Courier/Express deliveries

USCIS
Attn: AOS
2501 S. State Hwy. 121, Business
Suite 400
Lewisville, TX 75067

3. USCIS will issue an Employment Authorization Document, if they approve your application. When you receive the Employment Authorization Document, you must bring a copy of the Employment Authorization Document to International Student Services. Please do not forget to check your Employment Authorization Document for any errors. If you find any errors, please call USCIS Customer Service listed on your Receipt Notice.
4. If you do not have a Social Security number (SSN), you can apply for one upon receipt of your Employment Authorization Document. Visit the International Gateway for information on how to apply for an SSN.

Note: Application itself for off-campus employment does not guarantee approval. The decision will be made by the USCIS Adjudication Officer upon review and consideration of your application.
